

hakkasan

MIAMI SPICE PRE FIXE MENU

Appetizers

(Choose one and a soup)

Dim Sum

Fried Dim Sum Selection

Vegetarian Dim Sum

---

Hot and Sour Soup or

Vegetarian Hot and Sour Soup

Entrées

(Choose one)

Stir Fry Black Pepper Beef

Steamed Fish of the day in Spicy Yellow Bean Sauce

Sauteed Wild Fungus with Chinese Leaf in Sha Cha Sauce

Side

(Choose one)

Lotus Rice with Dried Shrimp and Chicken

Egg Fried Rice with Mixed Green Vegetables

Wild Mushroom Hand Pulled Noodle

Desserts

(Choose one)

Strawberry Soup with Yogurt Sorbet

Selection of Ice Cream and Sorbet

---

Complimentary valet parking for restaurant patrons only now through Sept. 30, 2009. Validation at the time of restaurant payment.

$35 per guest not including beverages, taxes or gratuities. Not combinable with any other offer or promotion.

Excludes Saturdays, special events, groups of 6 or more and holidays.

“Tell me what you eat, and I shall tell you what you are”

Jean Anthelme Brillat-Savarin

Hakkasan feels like a cinematic vision of the sexiest nightclub you'd never been to. Often imitated but never bettered, Hakkasan's design divides the bar, with its team of cocktail shakers and soundtrack setting DJ, from the central dining area via a lacquered lattice of carved Chinese screens, from behind which impossibly glamorous waiting staff emerge to deliver dishes from a Michelin-star winning, modern Cantonese menu created by chef Tong Chee Hwee.

Hakkasan's dining concept is family style, meant to be shared. The following is an adaptation for Miami Spice restaurant month.